

Figure 6 | Equal nominal tolerance conflates distortion magnitude with error geometry
ZFP realizes only about one-sixth of the L-inf perturbation of SZ3/SPERR at equal nominal tolerance. After matching actual L-inf within material, the dramatic gap shrinks but does not vanish.

Points are material-level effects; intervals are 95% material-bootstrap CIs. Matching is without replacement within material. Primary analysis uses a 0.10-dex caliper.